Dear Parents,

This week your child has brought home a 'free choice' book to share with you in the same way as s/he did in Pre-School. Free choice books can be changed on Tuesdays and Thursdays - this changing of books is supervised by an adult in school.

During the course of the next week or two, when I have had the opportunity to get to know your child and carry out some simple assessments, s/he will also bring home a tin containing letters and/or words to learn together with a reading book to practice with you before 'reading' it in school. I will send further information on these items at that time.

With regard to information, I will do my best to keep you well informed about what is going on in class and how you can best support your child. Please also check the class notice board regularly and refer to the school website (address above).

If you have any worries or queries, please do not hesitate to come in and see me.

Yours sincerely,

Emma Riches (Mrs.)
