Further details will be circulated nearer the time. Two tickets will be allocated per family for one or other of the evening performances. Additional tickets will be allocated as fairly as possible. Tickets will be collected on the door each evening. There are usually places available at the dress rehearsal which people are welcome to attend. Please note, when ordering tickets, that the audience should remain for the entire performance regardless of when specific classes perform—arrangements are made to supervise classes until the very end. Further details will be circulated giving information on collection times.

There will be an interval during the evening performances when coffee and mince pies will be sold.

No younger children will be allowed to attend the evening performances, but they are welcome to attend the dress rehearsal on the afternoon of Monday, 8th December at 1.30 p.m. Please indicate which evening you would like your tickets for in the spaces overleaf. There is also a space for you to indicate your requirements for any additional tickets, if they are available.
