

The poster features a decorative border of stars and book stacks. At the top, a large five-pointed star is centered. Below it, a horizontal line separates the school name from the event details. The event details are enclosed in a rectangular box. On the left and right sides of the box, there are stacks of colorful books. The bottom of the box contains the thank you message. The entire poster is surrounded by a border of stars of various sizes and colors (black, white, and colored).
