10th November 2022

Dear Parents / Carers

Remembrance Day

Tomorrow, 11th November, Lionel Walden School will hold a short assembly on the playground to commemorate Remembrance Day. Children will read poems and hold a two minutes silence. Parents and carers are more than welcome to join us for the event and are asked to congregate on the playground at 10:40am. If children are members of any clubs such as the Scouts, Beavers and Cubs, then they are invited to come into school in their uniforms for the day, if they so wish.

Anti-Bullying Week

Next week is Anti-Bullying Week and the school will be recognising this important event by starting the week with Odd Socks Day on Monday 14th! Children are invited to attend school wearing odd socks (the wilder the better!). Throughout the week, children will learn about the importance of celebrating uniqueness and valuing diversity. The theme for the week is 'Reach Out' which encourages children to speak up about any issues they have and reach out to trusted adults.

Children In Need

Friday 18th is Children In Need day. Children can dress up in 'spots' or in Pudsey Bear clothes to celebrate the day. A donation to the appeal is appreciated and can be given to class teachers. We will let you know how much we raise for this great cause.

Kind regards

Mr Steve Abey
